SHOOTERS MEMBERSHIP affords the person identified above participation in any shotgun, rifle, and handgun shooting programs on Kalbfus Rod and Gun Club's grounds, invitation to all Kalbfus Rod and Gun Club activities, and access to all Club communications via email or postal mail. His/her signature on this application binds the signee to use only paper or cardboard targets. The use of glass, bricks, cinder blocks, or other such items for targets on the Club range is prohibited. Members must remove and properly dispose of expended ammunition and used targets.

Note: The Rifle Range is considered closed to all Members during hours that the Club is under a rental to another party or being used for instructional purposes such as Hunter Education or Law Enforcement qualification. It is also closed when clay target shooting of any type is in process, unless permission is received from the individual in charge of the clay target shoot. Please check the schedule of events posted on the Club website www.kalbfus.com or in the display case located by the clubhouse door.

I hereby promise to abide by all By-Laws of the Kalbfus Rod and Gun Club, all hunting and fishing laws in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to protect and defend the rights and privileges of my fellow sportsmen.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

The Kalbfus Rod and Gun Club retains the right to rescind the Membership of any Member that displays a blatant disregard for the safety of others on the Club grounds or is destructive to Club property or reputation.

Note: Shooters Membership privileges expire annually on December 31. Membership must be renewed to obtain Main Gate Access Code which is changed annually on January 1.

 - End-of-year Application Policy: First-time Applications submitted after October 31 are eligible for an extension to December 31 of the following year for a fee of $10 ($45 total). Subsequent renewals will expire December 31 of the year in which application is made, regardless of date of submission.
